

Please do not institute any rule which will weaken the current INDIANA no-call law.

Since I signed up, the number of calls per day has fallen from 5 to zero. The current INDIANA no-call law is working very well and nothing the FCC does should weaken that law.